
LIVED EXPERIENCES OF WHRDS

AGNES KHARSHIING

Agnes Kharshiing (India) is an outspoken WHRD who tirelessly defends women, community, and land and environmental rights through her activism and in her role as president of the Civil Society Women's Organisation. Recently, Agnes, who had been filing complaints against groups and individuals involved in the illegal coal trade in Meghalaya, was severely beaten up by 30-40 coal traders and transporters, who left her with life threatening injuries.

AHRD
Asian Human Rights Defenders